Biographical Note

There is little reliable biographical information regarding Jones. One record in a related collection indicates Jones made a purchase of land in Hardin County, Iowa on March 25, 1879. On that document, Jones listed his home as Butler County, Iowa.

Collection Overview

The collection consists of approximately 165 records kept by Lt. Francis A. Jones during his tenure as acting regimental Quartermaster for the 24th Iowa Volunteers Infantry Regiment in Louisiana, Georgia, Virginia, and North Carolina dating from April 9, 1864 to June 30, 1865. While the collection contains records spanning over a year, certain months are more fully documented. These months are April, 1864; June, 1864; December, 1864; and June 1865. The records were compiled at various locations including: Alexandria, Louisiana; Thibodaux, Louisiana; Carrollton, Louisiana; Kennerville, Louisiana; Camp Russell, Virginia; Morehead, North Carolina; Savannah, Georgia; Augusta, Georgia; and "camp in the field", Louisiana. Nearly all records were evidently hand-written by Jones and bare his signature. All records directly concern the the 24th Iowa and names mentioned (except where noted) were members of that unit.

A large portion of the collection consists of requisition forms submitted to Jones by individual officers in the 24th Iowa. These requisitions are for typical clothing and camp equipment needed by the men. Common items mentioned include: trousers, shirts, uniform hats, boots, booties, stockings, lined blouses, canteens, rubber blankets, shelter tents, knapsacks and haversacks, wool blankets, camp kettles, and mosquito bars (nets). In April and June, 1864, musical instruments including fifes, drums, and drum sticks were commonly requisitioned. Other classes of items requisitioned include fuel (wood and coal), stationary (ink, pens, lead pencils, etc.), and forage, i.e. straw, hay, corn, and oats for the regiment's horses, mules, and oxen.

Also included are several special orders indicating that Jones is to detach from the regiment and report to other units for temporary duty. Two documents are lists of items lost for which Jones was responsible. These include Jones' explanation for the loss and statements from officers attesting to the veracity of Jones' account.
