

Native Stories

American Indian stories are passed down through oral tradition from one generation to the next. Engage in an interactive story traditional to an American Indian nation that focuses on natural phenomena.

About the Experience

Museum Theme: Anthropology/Social Studies

Grades: Open to all grades, best suited for grades preK-2nd

Duration: 30 minutes

Capacity: 30 per session, multiple sessions available for larger groups
(For pricing questions please see our FAQs)

Goals of the Experience:

- Students will learn about American Indian oral traditions
- Students will participate in interactive storytelling of a traditional American Indian story
- Students will engage in experience generated conversations with teachers, other classmates and the facilitator