

Thinking Art

Look deeper at art, artifacts and exhibit components at the Museum. Utilizing questioning and visual thinking strategies, think critically about objects at the Museum and contribute to a lively discussion facilitated by trained staff and volunteers.

About the Experience:

Type of Station: Art and Museum Exploration Station

Grades: Open to all grades

Duration: 20-30 minutes

Capacity: 30 per session, multiple sessions available for larger groups
(For pricing questions please see our FAQ)

Goals of the Experience:

- Students will think critically about art
- Students will practice communicating their observations and listening to other students
- Students will engage in workshop generated conversations with teachers, other classmates and the facilitator