Appl. 161359

Cert. 119542

George Gemunder was born in Ingelfingen (Wuerttemberg) Germany in 1834, son of Adam and Catherine Gemunder. After his father died in March 1850, George, in his late teens, and his mother came to the U.S. and Yorkville, N. York, where George worked as a shoemaker.

(unmarried)

Unable to earn a consistent income, George, at 23, enlisted in the Regular Army's 5th Infantry, the day after Christmas, 1857

George, 5' 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ " with dark hair and complexion, served in the West, in Utah Territory and New Mexico during the early years of the Civil War, battling Confederates and Indians.

no regular sent home $10-15 to his mother to support her.

His 5 year enlistment ended, he was discharged <sup>AS A PVT.</sup> Dec 26, 1862, at Fort Marcy, New Mexico Territory. The ex-soldier kicked around for a half year, winding up in Leavenworth. There, in Sept. 1863, in what seemed easy duty, he enlisted in the Brigade Band in Sept. 1863. A month later he was dead. That was not the end of the story. His mother, in New York City, destitute, filed and received her son's pension.

Ft. Scott.

She received pension payments from 1868 until early 1873, when she returned to Inglefingen, Germany, where she promptly died, Apr. 3. Her crooked attorney, a "Dr. Wiczordh" and an accomplice, Alexander Hoch, filed forged papers with a phony New York City address, and continued to collect Georgi's pension for three more years. Then they were arrested and prosecuted for this and a number of other similar pension frauds

PELLAGE, HERMAN

Herman Pellige was found dead in his house, 1354 Williamson street, about 3 o'clock this afternoon. He lived alone for many years. The neighbors had not seen him for several days. Just before 3 o'clock Mr. Carl Marks, a neighbor, went to the house, made an entrance and found Pellige's dead body on the floor, cold and stiff. Word was at once sent to the police station, the patrol wagon was sent out and the body was taken to the rooms of Fitch & Son, undertakers. From all appearance life had been extinct at least two days. Pellige was years ago a member of a band here and a cigar maker. Two or three brothers and other relatives reside here. He was about 55 years old.
