MISS HARRIST'S STATUE OF ZOEBIA.

It is no new thing to say, but it is true, that a noble field in American, and the medical profession in general, through our country, send forth works them-each to the talent and devotion of our artists is your's, Miss Hors. We are glad to hear that you enjoy these works, fed by the works them-is, also rapidly growing, and compared with is the progress of wonderful. We feel a glow of pleasure at the thought of the approaching emperor, the proofs of ripening power, which may cast us high among the nations in this respect, is so ally, to purify and enrich our national ges-art; not striving only for originality, but by what it means, or of expressing it in what is in, and as it is, by varying elevation, influence, whatever gifts of

The mingling among us of so many races, and effect of our many cliques, give us a peo-beef, I am sure, that I have seen very low prices. It is another thing to for the sake of the public, and as the people of New York, the princess, whether for the sake of the public, and as the people of New York, the princess,

T. B. Bryan, the energetic president of the premier and celebrated, and the precision with is the best of dress, and the debut of a style have been received with loud applauses.
