The Great Fair.

The following encouraging statement of the condition and prospects of the great Northwestern Sanitary Fair will be found by our readers in the Iowa Journal, of Des Moines, which is published in that city, and which is extensively read in the northwestern part of the Union.

The Fair is now in full progress, and the subscribers are becoming most active and efficient workers for the success of the great movement. The number of subscriptions has already reached the sum of $10,000, which is far in excess of what was expected. The prospects are very bright for the success of the Fair.

The Fair is to be held in Des Moines, Iowa, on the 25th of September, and is to be attended by the most distinguished citizens of the country. The object of the Fair is to raise money for the relief of the destitute and suffering of the soldiers and sailors of the United States, who have been so long and so bravely defending the nation.

The Fair will consist of a grand exhibition of manufactured goods, and will be held in a large and beautiful building, which has been erected especially for the purpose.

The Fair is expected to be attended by a large number of visitors from all parts of the country, and the proceeds will be devoted to the relief of the destitute and suffering of the soldiers and sailors of the United States.

The Fair is to be held in Des Moines, Iowa, on the 25th of September, and is to be attended by the most distinguished citizens of the country. The object of the Fair is to raise money for the relief of the destitute and suffering of the soldiers and sailors of the United States, who have been so long and so bravely defending the nation.

The Fair will consist of a grand exhibition of manufactured goods, and will be held in a large and beautiful building, which has been erected especially for the purpose.

The Fair is expected to be attended by a large number of visitors from all parts of the country, and the proceeds will be devoted to the relief of the destitute and suffering of the soldiers and sailors of the United States.

The Fair is to be held in Des Moines, Iowa, on the 25th of September, and is to be attended by the most distinguished citizens of the country. The object of the Fair is to raise money for the relief of the destitute and suffering of the soldiers and sailors of the United States, who have been so long and so bravely defending the nation.

The Fair will consist of a grand exhibition of manufactured goods, and will be held in a large and beautiful building, which has been erected especially for the purpose.

The Fair is expected to be attended by a large number of visitors from all parts of the country, and the proceeds will be devoted to the relief of the destitute and suffering of the soldiers and sailors of the United States.