CURIOUS AND AMUSING.

-Dresses, without sleeves, are the style in Paris. -The best kind of servant for hotels-Inn-experienced. "Flame color" is the fashionable tint, on Broadway, for gioves. -The Ex-Prime Minister of Madagascar's name is Rainyvoninahitriniony.

-It is stated, as a singular fact, that the smaller ladies' bonnets grow, the more they cost.

—A missionary girl, in Rhode Island, collected seven dollars and fifty cents by selling her kisses at twenty-five cents each. Cheap.

—The idea has been seized upon by a foreign photographic house to have handkerchiefs marked with photographs of the owner. The process, it is said, "will wash."

-The music of an opera, written by a brother and sister, M. and M'lle Perry, whose ages are respectively eleven and seventeen, has been sung at the Salle Beethoven, at Paris.

-A new art, namely, how to divine the character of a person from his feet, has been launched on the bosom of the waters of novelty, in England, The "professor" must be careful not to put his foot in it.

-A merchant at San Francisco, having the misfortune to lose his wife, invited his clerks to attend her funeral. He is said afterward to have charged each of them for the day as lost time, and made them pay for the carriages,

-Among the new fashions in New York, at present, is this, that no lady goes to the grave with a husband, child, or friend. Women are compelled to sit solitary in the house, while the gentlemen attend the burial. Many lament the heartless custom, but fashion is inexorable.

—A useful innovation has been introduced in the omnibuses of Paris. When the 'bus is full the conductor uncovers the word "Complet," and a similar sign appears in front of the driver's box, so that pedestrians wishing to ride are informed that they must wait for the next conveyance.
