He was introduced to Mr. and Mrs. Blackwell of Provost, by Professor J. E. McConnon, and later met with Mr. Bitton, who was present at the exhibition.

FAN EXHIBITION AT THE FAIR.

M. E. and J. E. McConnon, who were present at the exhibition, were present at the fair. The former offered a large painting, which was accepted by Mr. Bitton. The latter, who was present at the fair, offered a smaller painting, which was accepted by Mr. Blackwell.

All persons are invited to send provisions to help the soldiers through the great fair. Provisions may be sent to the following addresses:

1. 123 Main St., Walsinburg.
2. 456 Market St., Fairville.
3. 789 Park Ave., Lincolnville.

The provisions should be sent in quantities sufficient to last for the entire fair. Contributions of any kind will be gratefully received.

INTERESTING TO WOMEN.

The fair offers many interesting features for women. In addition to the exhibits of textiles, clothing, and household goods, there are also exhibits of women's activities in various fields. Women are invited to participate in these exhibits and to contribute to the fair in any way they can.

WHY IS IT THAT THE ANNUAL PROCEEDINGS OF THE FAIR ARE SO INTERESTING?

It is the time of the year when the farmers are busy preparing their land for the next season, and the fair offers a chance for them to show their produce and their skills. It is also the time of year when the country is running down for the winter, and the fair offers a chance to celebrate the end of the harvest.

AGTURINE DISCOVERY.

The enormous granite pillar, standing on a sand hill across the road from the fair, is known as Papa's Pillar, but recently regarded as a landmark for the town. It is a monument of interest to the student of the country and to the traveler who wishes to take in some of the beauty of the region. It is a very picturesque and well-shaped monument, and is a worthy addition to the fair grounds.
