Abstract:

The William J. K. Beaudot Archival Collection consists of Civil War research material supporting The Blackhat Newsletter of the 6th Wisconsin Vols. Issues 1 to 90. The newsletters contained information on the “shooting seasons” of the unit and its members as well as articles on historical figures who served with the 6th Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry.

Access Restrictions:

- Requests to research the collection must be made 24 hours in advance to the curator.
- Collection is open for research on-site at the Civil War Museum during business hours: Monday-Friday, 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.
- Patrons must sign in with curator before use and adhere to archive rules while utilizing the collection.
- The Civil War Museum reserves the right to accept or deny any research request.

Use Restrictions:

Photocopies available upon request. Fee required.

Preferred Citation:

(Identification of item), William J. K. Beaudot Collection. The Civil War Museum, Kenosha, Wisconsin.

Provenance:

William J. K. Beaudot Collection was donated to the Civil War Museum by Mr. William J. K. Beaudot of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Processing Information:

Processed by Richard Zimmermann.

Collection Overview:

The collection centers around three bound volumes of The Blackhat Newsletter, comprised of 90 issues, each consisting of 6-13 pages. Many of the articles are drawn from primary source documents, which have been copied from the originals and these copies are present in the collection. These copies include microfilm, maps, newspaper articles, diaries, letters, photos, enlistment, medical and discharge papers from the National Archives, along with excerpts from Wisconsin county and local history sources. William J. K. Beaudot also co-authored (with Lance Herdegen) several books on the Iron Brigade, and some of this material was used for those works as well. The collection includes information about the Iron Brigade, individual Wisconsin regiments, uniforms and flags, and also includes detailed biographical information for many individual soldiers.
